WELCOME HOME

On Saturday March 14 based on recommendations from the medical community and the local and state governments, we made the difficult decision to cancel worship for Sunday morning. I never dreamed more than three months later we would still not have our doors open for public worship. However, that does not mean that worship has not gone on during this shut down. I am grateful for all the hard work that our staff and lay leadership have put into offering worship, study, and meetings online, sending out material for our children, meeting the needs of many families impacted financially in our community, and providing a weekly take out dinner. I am grateful that you have stayed engaged and been faithful to your church vows to faithfully participate in the ministries of your church through your prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness.

It has not been a decision we took lightly to bring back public worship offerings. While many things around us are opening back up, the reality is the threat of the virus spreading is still very real. Our cases have not gone down. For that reason, we are proceeding with lots of caution and putting into place ways we can reduce the risk for you while offering an opportunity for our church family to be together in worship. We still believe it is wise for those in the more vulnerable categories to worship online. We are offering socially distanced indoor, outdoor, and online options. We are requesting you to wear a mask and sanitize your hands when entering into worship. We will practice social distancing in our sanctuary (limiting the sanctuary to about 150 people) and at Wesley Gardens, and we will sanitize the building between services. We will not be singing congregationally nor have a choir, and we will avoid shaking hands or hugging. We feel a great responsibility for you our congregation as well as loving our neighbors in the community, but we also want to offer an opportunity for us to worship together.

So today I say welcome home as we gather at Wesley Gardens for our first public worship event in three long months. We also get to say welcome home to Dr. Monica Dekle, and we rejoice with her and Andrew that their infant son, Remington, is doing well at home. Thank you for your prayers and support of them. Next Sunday, we will begin in the sanctuary with 8:45 and 11:00 a.m. services and return to Wesley Gardens for a 5:30 p.m. service. We plan on live streaming the 11:00 a.m. service online or recording the 8:45 service and posting it online in time for 11:00 worship for those who need to be at home. We hope you will join us in the time and place that is best suited for you.

Please pray for our congregation, community, state, and nation as we start returning to more and more public activity. Pray for wisdom for our leaders, direction for those researching a vaccine and cures, and for patience, understanding, and compassion among all of us as there are many differing opinions about what we should and shouldn't be doing.

* Opening Hymn                      How Great Thou Art                      Jerome Elder, tenor

"Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord." Ephesians 5:19 (KJV)

O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the worlds Thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Refrain:

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to thee;
how great Thou art, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to thee;
how great Thou art, how great Thou art!

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur
and hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze; Refrain.

And when I think that God, his Son not sparing, sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in;
that on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin; Refrain.

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart.
then I shall bow in humble adoration,
and there proclaim, my God, how great Thou art. Refrain.

My country's skies are bluer than the ocean,
and sunlight beams on cloverleaf and pine;
but other lands have sunlight too, and clover,
and skies are everywhere as blue as mine.
O hear my song, thou God of all the nations,
a song of peace for their land and for mine.

This is my prayer, O Lord of all earth's kingdoms:
Thy kingdom come; on earth Thy will be done.
Let Christ be lifted up till all shall serve Him,
and hearts united learn to live as one.
O hear my prayer, thou God of all the nations;
myself I give thee; let Thy will be done.

* Benediction

Ben Martin

* Please stand as you are able.

Following the service, please take your bulletins, masks, and all belongings with you.

All music reprinted under OneLicense.net No. A-719387 and CCLI No. 11046193.
