WELCOME HOME

On Saturday March 14 based on recommendations from the medical community and the local and state governments, we made the difficult decision to cancel worship for Sunday morning. I never dreamed more than three months later we would still not have our doors open for public worship. However, that does not mean that worship has not gone on during this shut down. I am grateful for all the hard work that our staff and lay leadership have put into offering worship, study, and meetings online, sending out material for our children, meeting the needs of many families impacted financially in our community, and providing a weekly take out dinner. I am grateful that you have stayed engaged and been faithful to your church vows to faithfully participate in the ministries of your church through your prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness.

It has not been a decision we took lightly to bring back public worship offerings. While many things around us are opening back up, the reality is the threat of the virus spreading is still very real. Our cases have not gone down. For that reason, we are proceeding with lots of caution and putting into place all the things we can to reduce risk for you while offering an opportunity for our church family to be together in worship. We still believe it is wise for those in the more vulnerable categories to worship online. We are offering socially distanced indoor, outdoor, and online options. We are requesting you wear a mask and sanitize your hands when entering into worship. We will practice social distancing in all our services (limiting the sanctuary to about 150 people), and we will sanitize the building between services. We will not be singing congregationally nor have a choir, and we will avoid shaking hands or hugging. We feel a great responsibility for you our congregation as well as loving our neighbors in the community, but we also want to offer an opportunity for us to worship together.

So today I say welcome home as we gather back into our sanctuary after three long months. We also get to say welcome home to Dr. Monica Dekle, and we rejoice with her and Andrew that their infant son, Remington, is doing well at home. Thank you for your prayers and support of them. A special thanks to Shirley Roberts for filling in for Monica. We plan on live streaming the 11:00 service online today for those who need to be at home, and we will be returning to Wesley Gardens for an outdoor service this afternoon at 5:30 p.m. (It will contain the same music and message as this morning.) We hope you will join us in the time and place that is best suited for you.

Please pray for our congregation, community, state, and nation as we start returning to more and more public activity. Pray for wisdom for our leaders, direction for those researching a vaccine and cures, and for patience, understanding, and compassion among all of us as there are many differing opinions about what we should and shouldn't be doing.
