"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

Today we gather for worship on "Independence Day." I am sure you will recognize the words above from the Declaration of Independence, signed on July 4, 1776 by our nation's forefathers. They are beautiful and powerful words that speak to an understanding of faith in a sovereign God who created the world and gave certain divine rights to all humanity.

If a truth is self-evident, it apparently should be able to be recognized by anyone and everyone. It means a truth that is innately understood. For us as believers, it means it is divinely implanted in our souls. It is pretty obvious however that these self-evident truths are not always, or maybe even often, acted on. Which says that either they are not self-evident or people choose to not live what they know to be truth. When Jesus was on trial he said, "For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth." Pilate then asked Jesus the question, "What is truth?" Jesus' answer had already been given, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." Jesus certainly modeled for us in God's eyes truths like "all men (and women) are created equal." He did so because he believed we are all created in the image of God.

We may think about independence as freedom from something such as authority or oppression and for many that is true. But as American Christians, because most of us have known such freedom all our lives, it might be better for us to think of our freedom as freedom for something not freedom from. Through Christ we are given freedom from self so we can be free for others. That freedom begins with how we think about ourselves and how we think about other people. Paul said that if we are "in Christ there is no Jew nor Gentile, slave nor free, male nor female." When we are "In Christ" we are free to see truth that is self-evident that all people are created equal and all people are made in the image of God and are of equal worth. How are we living out our "independence" today?

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
the third day He rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit;
the holy catholic church, the communion of saints,

Anthem (11:00) Fairest Lord Jesus arr. Lloyd Larson

Fairest Lord Jesus, ruler of all nature,
O Thou of God and man the Son;
Thee will I cherish, Thee will I honor,
Thou my soul's glory, joy, and crown.

Fair are the meadows, fairer still the woodlands,
robed in the blooming garb of spring;
Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer, who makes the woeful heart to sing.

Fair is the sunshine, fairer still the moonlight,
and all the twinkling starry host;
Jesus shines brighter, Jesus shines purer than all the angels heav'n can boast.

Beautiful Savior! Lord of all the nations! Son of God and Son of Man!
Glory and honor, praise, adoration, now and forever more be Thine!

Ben Martin

Holy Communion

Invitation and Confession

Pastor: Christ our Lord invites to his table all who love Him, who earnestly repent of their sin and seek to live in peace with one another. Therefore, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

All: Merciful God,
we confess that we have not loved You with our whole heart.
We have failed to be an obedient church.
We have not done Your will,
we have broken Your law,
we have rebelled against Your love,
we have not loved our neighbors,
and we have not heard the cry of the needy.
Forgive us, we pray.
Free us for joyful obedience,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

All pray in silence.

Pastor: Hear the good news:
Christ died for us while we were yet sinners;
That proves God's love toward us.
In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

Congregation: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

All: Glory to God. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Pastor: The Lord be with you.

Congregation: And also with you.

Pastor: Lift up your hearts.

Congregation: We lift them up to the Lord.

Pastor: Let us give thanks to our Lord and God.

Congregation: It is right to give our thanks and praise

Pastor: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and every where to give thanks to You, Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth...

And so, with Your people on earth, and all the company of heaven we praise Your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high-est, ho - san-na in the high-est. Blest is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Holy are You, and blessed is Your Son Jesus Christ...

On the night in which He gave himself up for us, He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to His disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over He took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so,
in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,
we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
as a holy and living sacrifice,
in union with Christ's offering for us,
as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is ri - sen; Christ will come a - gain.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.

Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ,
That we may be for the world the body of Christ,
redeemed by His blood.

By Your Spirit make us one with Christ,
one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world,
until Christ comes in final victory,
and we feast at His heavenly banquet.

Altar Flowers

The flowers by the altar today are given to the glory of God and in honor of all who so willingly give of themselves so that we may enjoy our many freedoms, and in loving memory of all who have paid the ultimate sacrifice.
